

Protection of Copyright Policy

It is the intent of the Polk County Public Libraries to comply with Title 17 of the United States code, titled "Copyrights," and other federal legislation related to the duplication, retention, and use of copyrighted materials. U.S. Copyright law prohibits the unauthorized reproduction or distribution of copyrighted material, except as permitted by the principles of fair use.

Polk County Public Libraries are not responsible for the improper or illegal use of any copies of materials from its collections. Upon request, library staff will provide available background information on items owned by the library, and reference information related to copyright and fair use principles. This is not legal advice and it is the customer's responsibility to determine the appropriate use of an item. It is the customer's obligation to determine and satisfy copyright or other use restrictions when copying, publishing or otherwise distributing materials from the library collections. Any responsibility for the consequences of copyright infringement lies with the customer.

Approved by the Board of Trustees of the Polk County Public Libraries

Created: 7/30/2015

Revised: 7/26/2018

Reaffirmed: 7/28/2022